

text: Roman Missal,
adapted by Alex E. Hill

Easter Entrance Antiphons

tune: LASST UNS ERFREUEN
88 44 88 with Alleluias

CHOIR/CANTOR (unison):

2nd - Like new-born chil-dren, you must long, long for the pure milk of the Spi - rit;
3rd - Cry out with joy — to the Lord. Cry out with joy, — all the earth;
4th - The Lord loves jus - tice and right, and fills the earth with his love,
5th - O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has done — won - drous deeds;
6th - Pro - claim a joy - ful sound to God, O let your voice of joy be heard,
Asc - Why gaze in won - der at the heav'ns? Why gaze, O men of Ga - li - lee?
Dox - Praise to the Fa - ther and the Son, and to the Spi - rit, Three-in - One;

ALL:

AL - LE - LU - IA! AL - LE - LU - IA!

CHOIR/CANTOR (unison):

2nd - That in the Lord — you may grow, in him — grow — to sal - va - tion,
3rd - Sing to the glo - ry of his name, O ren - der him — glo - rious praise,
4th - for by the word — of the Lord, for by his word the heav'ns were made.
5th - the Lord makes his sal - va - tion known, known in the sight of all the na - tions,
6th - Pro - claim to all the ends of earth: the Lord has set his peo - ple free.
Asc - This Je - sus whom you saw as - cend will come a - gain as he has gone,
Dox - All glo - ry as in days be - fore, is now and will be e - ver - more;

ALL:

AL - LE - LU - IA! AL - LE - LU - IA! AL - LE - LU - IA! AL - LE -

LU - IA! AL - LE - LU - IA!

[organ improv. as needed to complete entrance procession]